

UNIVERSITY OF SINDH

JAMSHORO SINDH, PAKISTAN

FACULTY OF EDUCATION,
ELSA KAZI CAMPUS OLD CAMPUS HYDERABAD.

CLASS: B.ED 4 years

Course Code No. EFMP – 303 Credit Hours 3

Course Title: Educational Policies and Plans of Pakistan Semester 2ND

Course Description

This course examines the development, implementation, and evaluation of educational policies and planning in Pakistan. It focuses on historical and contemporary education policies, national development plans, challenges in educational planning, and the role of government and institutions in shaping quality education. Emphasis is placed on linking educational planning with social, economic, and political contexts of Pakistan.

Course Objectives

1. Understand the historical development of educational policies in Pakistan
2. Analyze the objectives and impact of major educational plans
3. Examine educational planning processes at national and provincial levels
4. Identify challenges and issues in educational policy implementation
5. Propose strategies to improve educational planning and policy outcomes

Course Contents / Weekly Breakdown

Week 1: Introduction to Educational Policies and Planning

- Meaning and scope
- Importance of educational policies and planning
- Relationship between education, society, and development

Week 2: Historical Background of Education in Pakistan

- Education before independence
- Post-independence educational developments
- Key milestones in education system evolution

Week 3: National Education Policies Overview

- 1947–1970: Early policies
- 1970–1990: Policies and reforms
- 1990–2000: Policy shifts and challenges

Week 4: National Education Policy 2009

- Objectives and guiding principles
- Implementation strategies
- Outcomes and challenges

Week 5: National Education Policy 2017

- Vision and policy framework
- Curriculum reforms and quality assurance
- Policy priorities for literacy, higher education, and technical education

Week 6: Five-Year Development Plans and Education

- Role of development plans in education
- National and provincial plans
- Linking education with economic growth

Week 7: Educational Planning: Concept and Types

- Meaning and importance of planning
- Types of educational planning: micro, macro, strategic
- Stages of educational planning

Week 8: Planning Process and Models

- Needs assessment and goal setting
- Resource allocation
- Models of educational planning

Week 9: Monitoring and evaluation

- Monitoring and Evaluation
- Process of Monitoring and Evaluation
- Appropriate Tool and Resources for Monitoring

Week 10: Challenges in Educational Policy Implementation

- Financial constraints
- Political instability
- Bureaucratic and administrative issues

Week 11: Quality Assurance in Education

- Accreditation and evaluation systems
- Standardization of curricula
- Teacher training and professional development

Week 12: Education for Social and Economic Development

- Role of education in human capital formation
- Reducing inequality and poverty through education
- Gender and inclusive education policies

Week 13: International Comparisons and Policy Learning

- Education policies in developing countries
- Lessons for Pakistan
- Global educational goals (SDGs) and local relevance

Week 14: Role of Technology in Educational Planning

- ICT in education management
- Data-driven planning
- Digital transformation in education sector

Week 15: Future Directions in Educational Policies and Planning

- Innovations in policy design
- Strategic planning for quality and equity
- Role of teachers and administrators in policy success

Week 16: Review and Final Assessment

- Course review
- Student presentations and discussions

Recommended Readings

- Government of Pakistan. National Education Policies (2009 & 2017)
- UNESCO. Education Planning and Policy Guidelines
- Andrabi, T., & Rizvi, S. Educational Planning in Pakistan
- Khan, A. (2018). Education Policy and Planning in Pakistan