JAMSHORO SINDH, PAKISTAN

FACULTY OF EDUCATION ,UNIVERSITY OF SINDH

Title of Course: Inclusive Education
Course No.: EFMP-305
Credit Hours: 03 (0-3)
Semester:2nd
Class: B.Ed. (4 year)

Course Description

Inclusive education began as a movement to integrate children with disabilities into regular schools, evolving from segregation to inclusion. Over time, it expanded to embrace all learners regardless of ability, background, or difference. We learn about inclusive education to ensure equal learning opportunities, respect diversity, and help teachers create classrooms where every student can succeed. Inclusive education is important for teachers because it helps them address diverse learning needs, promote equality, and ensure every child participates fully in the classroom. It builds empathy, adaptability, and effective teaching practices.

Course Outcomes

After completion of the course the students should be able:

- To understand the concept and need for inclusive education.
- To identify and support diverse learners in classrooms.
- To apply inclusive teaching strategies and classroom adaptations.
- To understand Pakistan's policies on inclusive education.
- To promote equality, empathy, and collaboration in schools.
